

Date Published 4/1/2001

Le Bocce 1997 Riserva (Chianti Classico)

89 Points

Good balance and a sense of proportion characterize this handsome, classically styled Chianti. Displays aromas of cherry, leather and spice and dark-cherry flavors, cocoa accents and nice acidity on the palate. The long and flavorful finish makes it very appealing for current consumption, and it should improve further over the next year or two.

Le Bocce 1998 Chianti Classico

87 Points

The tart berry and plum fruit wears a good dose of cocoa on the nose and picks up nice herb and licorice shadings on the smooth medium weight palate. Finishes long and dry with dusty tannins, and pronounced herb and mineral notes.